As long as I get to do something other than this ...

Or a tree
Or just some random rock.
It wouldn't matter.

Put your hands up and get up slowly
How does it feel like to be facing down in the pool of blood you created ?

Why didn't you just finish me off ?
As we venture deeper into an enemy territory supplies are becoming harder to get Even though this is not a front line.. we can't afford to feed POW
Pr senar nf war
Would you have been able to shot at a head that was size of my fist ?
unfortunately
I don't think I've become rotten yet.

Why did you tie him up in our tent though ?
The lieutenant told me to put him in here. Capturing a nobody like him is useless, he said.
Is he hurt ? His clothes are drenched with blood.
It's not his. It's the blood of the 3rd platoon.
Ugh
That angers me again
This little kid—
Was carrying an assault rifle that was as tall as him and was going around, shooting people
What kind of country is yours? Dragging kids into a war like this — Right back at you —

You are not an adult, either ...

Eh ?

You are not an adult, either ! You are a kid, too !
You are a kid, too ...

I was enlisted anyway !
Your damn fing country enlists even elementary school kids ! Of couse. I had to join the war !
Hey hey take it easy
Yeah, I smoke ! So what ?! SO WHAT ?!
JANIMES.COM

Do you think I smoke just for fun ?!
Mind your own damn business !
Good for you
What ?
Good for you that you got to enjoy public education !
Good for you that you went to any schools !
Good for you that you went to middle and high school !

God damn – !
How old are you ?
Eleven ...
Don't lie
You think we will fall for that ?
Unlike you, ' supply ' was something I didn't have !
He's pretty good with vocabulary despite of a fact that he didn't go to schools
I guess he's good at that He's small because he didn't get to eat well
Awww
Your tent reeks, boys

The sweet-heart of this station
Eeek !
박
박
It hurts ...
Look at all these noodles
Aren't we gonna use this water to cook ?
Don't say it. Our meal time is close

I can't give you much
Stomach growling
Are you sure ? Our rations have been reduced twice a day, you know
Why did I capture him
Is he really a boy ? He looks cute
Yep, he is a boy. I saw his thing when I was cleaning him
And I saw the legendary louse in his hair
We are eating
Shouldn't we change his bandages, too ?
It got wet when you cleaned him. It will do him no good

I have no idea why I have to do this
I could have just left him there
Your eye
What happened ?
A debris from a bomb
No
Can it be healed ?
Shooting a gun with one eye ? You wouldn't be accurate at all
Your country geez

Nevermind
Sleep somehow
There is nothing to cover your body
It's not cold anyway, so it shouldn't matter

If I go out and look for a bed sheet for you, they will think me as a traitor.
Um, this ...
Sleep..

I didn't tell anyon.....
That you shot at the guys of the 3rd platoon.
If they find out, you and I both will be punished.
Geneva Conventions or whatnot.
They don't care about little rules Time is desperate
Curse that you were born in such an era.

And be thankful for your youthful appearance
And that skeleton body of yours
I am-
Sleeping now

It was easy to tell that he wasn't asleep by just listening to his breath.
So what...
Me or him
Me and him,
leave a name to the history books.
We were both naked.

To his eyes,
I was too young.
To his eyes,
I didn't grow tall enough.
A child ?!
That mark...
That's Sunokia

Nonetheless, we were soldiers of war.

You fool !
Why did you
fire ?!
I, I apologize !
I was startled
Our plan for the sneak attack is ruined !

I ... didn't have a dream.
Rather ... I chose not to have a dream in such chaos.
So, it did not matter.

Even if I'd just become a sunflower seed...

He's like a hamster
Yes, yes, good.
Have fun eating those.
Chew well. Be thankful for my efforts

Bro...

Thanks for cleaning me.
Thanks for changing my bandage.
Thanks for sharing
Thanks for letting me live ...

Even for a short while...

Thanks for sending me back to my childhood.

They were really good...
